

Raha Lane

Raha Lane's development as an artist evolved from her father's skilled guidance, through her studies in high school and her years at Azad University in Tehran. After graduation, she participated in the Exhibition of Persian Painters in 1994 to great acclaim. Raha then moved to Europe to expand her studies of European style. Her creative success brought her to California where she continued her art studies at San Francisco Academy of Fine Arts.

The results of her dedication to her art can be seen in corporate and private art collections throughout the world.
