

Nancy Berninger

Nancy Berninger paints with freedom. Her paintings convey both spontaneity and organized energy.

Berninger's floral images are dramatically colorful. In Linda's Iris, Berninger utilizes a sophisticated palette to create unity and bridge cool and warm hues. The upward momentum culminates with bursts of heavily applied saturated pigment.

Berninger's brush strokes parallel nature. Her ability to bring us the raw beauty that nature presents gifts us with a seemingly first hand sensual experience. The sense of place that we find in her florals and landscapes offers us a peaceful refuge.

Berninger reminds us of the vitality and strength that comes from nature's vibrant colors. Her paintings are coveted contemporary manifestations of the Impressionist sensibility.
