

Yana Ranevska

Yana was born in the Ukraine in 1975 and began painting at the age of 12.

Having noticed her incredible talent, her parents encouraged her formal art education in the Ukraine and later in the Hermitage museum in St Petersburg, Russia.

In 2003 Yana moved to Israel with her family after earning a degree in art education and began to mentor other artists on refining their oil painting and drawing techniques.

Yana's diverse styles allowed her work to be discovered by major galleries in Israel, Europe and the United States.

Currently residing in Miami, Florida, Yana has recently exhibited her works in Miami Art Week at world renowned shows such as Spectrum Miami and Red Dot Art Fair where it was very well received by international galleries and seasoned art collectors. Yana's work has also been featured onboard luxury cruise ships such as Disney Cruise Line.
