About Zoe Mac

Zoé Mac is an internationally known artist whose paintings have been published in the United States, Europe and subsequently marketed with collectors in all fifty states and internationally in countries that include Great Britain, the Netherlands, Switzerland,

Germany, Austria, Spain, South Africa, Bulgaria and areas of Australia.

Her work has been featured with notable publishers at the New York International Art Exposition. Nationally, Zoé Mac's lithographs have been marketed in TIME magazine along with the legendary Erté and Eyvind Earle who was known for his backdrop in the movies 'Snow White' and 'Sleeping Beauty'. During that same time, she had a showing at a Gallery in Jupiter, Florida with the well known singer and painter Tony Bennett.

Zoé Mac's paintings grace the walls of corporations such as Hilton Hotels and Gannett Corp as well as being in private collections; one of which includes several paintings owned by the honorable John Walsh of 'America's Most Wanted'.

Zoé Mac received her fine art training at the Art Students League of New York. There she studied painting with master watercolorist Mario Cooper who encouraged her to pursue a career as an artist and It was her college fine art professor who recommended her for her first teaching position at the Hudson River Museum in Westchester, New York.

"The paintings are the expression of what I see and have integrated as an artist. During early years as a painter, I was moved by the art of WassilyKandinsky, Vincent VanGogh and Egon Schiele. Their spirits' touched me to expound in my own work and vision."
